- 893 Ireland (William Henry). Hamlet. Autograph manuscript, folio, half russia.

A correct transcript of the First, Second and Fourth Acts, and half of the 1st Scene of the Fifth Act.

"Mr. Samuel Ireland's enthusiastic admiration of the works of Shakespeare, being his general theme of conversation, that circumstance prompted his son, William Henry, to imbibe a similar sentiment. In consequence of such predilections, the latter had undertaken to copy out all the dramas of the Immortal Bard: which labor he commenced with the present fair specimen of Hamlet. The undertaking, however, thus begun, was put a stop to by the production of the spurious papers, attributed, by W. H. Ireland, to Shakespeare. So that the present volume is particularly curious, as having been the labor of the writer immediately prior to the celebrated fabrication which so long occupied the attention of the literary world."

- 894 Album Amicorum Familiarum Alardi et Fabricii. Containing numerous drawings, some of which are very spirited and curious. Autographs of different learned personages, &c. Oblong 4to. Original morocco binding, gilt edges. 1624-56

This is a valuable album or common-place book, containing many extraordinary specimens of caligraphy, and including verses by (or the autographs of) many distinguished literary persons of that time—Frederick Spanheim, 1645, John Fabricius, 1645, George Crusius, 1656, Petrus Lotichius, John Schmidt, 1635, George Mylins, 1635, Matthias Nicolai, 1634, Daniel Zwicker, 1635, Thos. Lindemannus, &c., &c.

Some of the drawings are very curious: in one, Luther and Calvin are disputing, the Pope standing by and laughing; there are also divers emblematical devices, armorial bearings, &c.

The volume is very closely and beautifully written, and contains a great deal of matter. Among the Poetry are some German verses on King Charles the First, &c. It came from the Van Septem Collection, and sold at that sale for fourteen guineas.

- 895 Mackintosh (Sir James). Life of Sir Thomas More, original manuscript in the Author's Autograph, with corrections, &c. 4to, half calf. Not complete
- 896 Brewster's (Sir David). Optics. Original Manuscript in the Author's Autograph, not complete. 4to, half calf.
- 897 Herschel (Sir John F. W.) A Treatise on Astronomy. Proof corrected by the author. Contains many additions in the Author's autograph. Folio, cloth, not complete.
- 898 Addison (Joseph). Unpublished Poems, in his Autograph. 4to, calf, gilt.

On the fly-leaf are the signatures of 'Cha: Warwick,' and Charlotte Addison: the elegant essayist having married, August 2, 1716, Charlotte, Countess of Warwick, grand-daughter of Sir Orlando Bridgman. The first poem in the book is entitled 'Van's House, built from the ruins of White Hall,' written in 1703, referring to the new play-house in the Haymarket. The minor poems are: 'Upon Love;' 'When will thy heart grow tender?' written in 1715, during his courtship; for Addison experienced more than the common share of a lover's difficulties in obtaining a bride—and more than a common share of a lover's disappointments in retaining her; 'Love's a Dream;' 'To Mr. Pope, on his second subscription to Homer;' 'A Riddle upon Coals;' 'Death makes all equal;' 'A Riddle upon a Shadow;' 'Apollo once to Venus sued;' a beautiful apologue on Love, in the autograph of his daughter, who writes in the margin, 'Papa's Work;' and an inscription upon the tomb of Edward Henry, Earl of Warwick and Holland, who died August 15, 1721, aged 24 years.

There are various other verses and poems of 1726, and later, by Mrs. Madden. Songs to the tune of 'Under the Greenwood Tree,' &c., &c. Most of the poems are written in a beautiful clear hand, one on the death of the 'Young Earl of Warwick,' and others by Addison's daughter, who writes in the margin Papa's Works.

- 899 Album of Ernricus Stauffer. Containing about seventy autographs of illustrious personages, English and Foreign; with sentences and mottoes attached, in Hebrew, Greek, Latin, German, French, Spanish and Persian ; also, a few exquisite drawings, two emblazoned Coats of Arms, &c. Oblong, 12mo, morocco, gilt edges. 1632-46.

This pretty little volume contains some beautiful specimens of caligraphy.
